The screenshot displays the Unity Conversation System interface. On the left, a conversation flow is shown with four nodes:

- Node 307: Zuhira, Player. Text: "There's something unusual about her brittle confidence, distant stare, and shaking hand."
- Node 309: Zuhira, Player. Text: "You saw it plenty of times in your old life as a mercenary. She's suffering the aftershocks of battle."
- Node 308: Zuhira, Player. Text: "You can read the signs - whatever she saw here has rattled her to her core."
- Node 318: Zuhira, Player. Text: "However, you can't quite put your finger on what it is."

Arrows indicate a flow from Node 307 to Nodes 309, 308, and 318. Node 309 is highlighted with a green border. A yellow circle with a mouse cursor is positioned above Node 307.

On the right, the Scripts panel is open, showing a list of categories for creating conditions:

"Where could I find ammunition for the bombard?"

Requires that the PC knows the bombard is unloaded, the cannon is still actually unloaded, the cannon has not fired, and the PC does NOT already have the cannonball
